Missouri Chamber Music Festival (MOCM) presents Pro-Am 2013:
A chamber music workshop for adult amateur instrumentalists
June 6 to 9, 2013 in Webster Groves

(St. Louis, MO, 05/31/13) The Missouri Chamber Music Festival (MOCM) presents a chamber music workshop for adult amateur instrumentalists, June 6 to 9, 2013 at the Community Music School of Webster University, 535 Garden Avenue, Webster Groves, MO, 63119. The workshop places amateur instrumentalists in chamber ensembles of various sizes and instrumentation to work in a supportive and relaxed environment.

Each ensemble rehearses chamber music with a coach for four days of chamber music immersion, culminating in an optional performance on Sunday, June 9, 2013 at 4:30 pm at the Community Music School of Webster University. This concert is open to the public.

Distinguished MOCM artists working as coaches and participating players include Nina Ferrigno, Dana Hotle, Felicia Foland, Thomas Jostlein, Angie Smart, Shannon Farrell Williams, Chris Tantillo, David Kim, and Ken Kulosa. This year's Pro-Am participants come from Missouri, Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, North Carolina, and Oklahoma.

The Missouri Chamber Music Festival 2013 Season is generously sponsored by the Arts and Education Council, the Fox Performing Arts Charitable Foundation, and Chamber Music America. The Missouri Chamber Music Festival (MOCM) was formed in June 2010 by Scott Andrews, principal clarinetist of the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra, and pianist Nina Ferrigno, to educate, cultivate, promote, foster, sponsor, develop, and encourage understanding of and public interest in classical chamber music. MOCM brings nationally recognized professional musicians to Webster Groves, MO to perform a series of chamber music concerts in collaboration with local artists during an annual Festival each June. Diverse programming including new and commissioned works are a defining attribute of the Festival illuminating the fine art of the small ensemble genre.
